Glenn has practiced law and litigated over 170 criminal and civil jury trials in Texas state and federal courts over the course of his 38-year legal career and has developed a particular expertise in Qui Tam litigation over the past 20 years. He brings a wealth of government practice experience to PY including 20 years as an Assistant United States Attorney with the U.S. Department of Justice where he investigated and litigated federal civil and defensive matters with primary emphasis on defense contract and health care fraud cases.

He has extensive experience with Qui Tam matters involving government procurement fraud and federal medical care programs and has negotiated multi-million-dollar settlements on behalf of the U.S. Government with major defense contractors and health care institutions throughout the United States.

ASSOCIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

Glenn also completed over 30 years of service in the U.S. Army Reserve and retired as a full Colonel in the Judge Advocate General's Corps which afforded him substantial exposure to a broad range of federal government programs relevant to PY's Qui Tam practice. The combined experience of Glenn's Justice Department and military careers enables PY to offer clients valuable real-world advice and counsel in a wide variety of federal and state Qui Tam issues.

Glenn has also enjoyed his involvement over many years in various humanitarian projects in Central America and is partial to Honduran cigars, political biographies, and bicycling.
