Nikki's practice focuses primarily on commercial litigation matters, including business disputes and product liability, as well as property and personal injury matters. She represents clients of all sizes across all industries on commercial and complex litigation matters. Prior to joining Prichard Young, her practice also included insurance defense and public and municipal law.

Nikki, a native of the Rio Grande Valley, originally moved to San Antonio to attend St. Mary's University School of Law, where she graduated magna cum laude. While in law school, she served first as a staff writer and then as the Managing Executive Editor of the St. Mary's Law Journal. Nikki's comment, Securing Technological Privacy: Modernizing the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct to Protect Electronic Data, was published in Volume 10 of the St. Mary's Journal on Legal Malpractice & Ethics. During law school, Nikki worked as a judicial intern for the Honorable Eduardo Rodriguez in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas.
